THE FAIR BILL.

Two Reports Submitted to the House Committee.

The Minority Reconstructs the Entire Bill

To Suit the Chicagoans—Uncle Sam is Asked to Appropriate but $1,500,000, and that is for the Government Display—The Enterprise to Be Known as "The World's Columbian Exposition"—The Minority Report.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Mr. Chandler, of Massachusetts, presented in the house Wednesday the report of the special committee on the world's fair. It is as follows:

By the vote of the house the city of Chicago was selected as the place for holding the fair of 1892, and under the instructions given by the action of the house, the committee has inserted the name of the city of Chicago in the bill, and has consulted with the representatives of that city for the purpose of perfecting and improving it, making, after careful consideration, such amendments as it deemed necessary and of importance. The bill submitted differs in some essential features from bill, House Resolution 6883 (which is the bill reported originally by the sub-committee and recommended). In the second section the representation of the territories and the District of Columbia has been increased from one to two commissioners from each, and provision is also made for the appointment of eight commissioners-at-large.

The Commission Named.

A name is also given the commission, the design applied being the World's Columbian commission. The third section dispenses with the United States corporation, which it was proposed to create by the congress of the United States. It is also stipulated that the commissioners to be appointed from each state and territory and the District of Columbia, together with the eight commissioners to be appointed at large, which the government appropriates for its own commission, acting independently of the corporation and without power to incur any obligations, is instructed by this act to accept the buildings only when they shall be deemed by said commission to be adequate to the purpose for which they are intended. In the original bill which was submitted to the house, the eleventh section stated that not less than the sum of $25,000,000 should be subscribed and pledged, and not less than ten percentum thereof should be actually paid in cash before the commission should do any corporate act other than those necessary to its organization.

A Conservative Bill.

The bill now reported is still more conservative, protecting the government's interests so far as its connection with it is concerned, and insuring the financial success of the fair beyond a reasonable contingency by providing that the commission shall not only be satisfied that the actual bona fide subscription to the capital stock of at least $5,000,000 has been made, of which not less than $500,000 has been paid in, but also declares that the further sum of $5,000,000, making $10,000,000 in all, shall be provided by the corporation in ample time or as needed for the successful prosecution of the work. The committee has given careful consideration to the statements of the representatives of the finance committee of the city of Chicago as to the subscriptions to the stock of $5,000,000, and believes the subscriptions to be bona fide, that they are made in good faith and that they will be paid.

Some of the statements made by the chairman of that committee are appended to this report. The committee also accepts the statements and representations made by the citizens of the city of Chicago through their committee, as to their ability to raise an additional $5,000,000, and of the opinion that they are made in good faith and will not be repudiated. While it is the judgment of the committee that the city of Chicago will meet the obligations and promises of their representatives, it would call attention to the fact that the judgment of this committee is not taken alone, but that the commission on the spot, in Chicago, will have a more favorable opportunity to satisfy themselves in regard to the site, the plans of the buildings and the certainty of the $10,000,000 than it would be possible for a committee of this house to do without taking more time and entering into the details of the exposition more fully than would be wise and practicable during a session of congress.

The representatives of the city of Chicago who have appeared before your committee were ready to meet every requirement indicated by the bill previously considered, or in the discussion while the location of the site was pending, and your committee desires to recognize the fact that it is due to the city of Chicago, that it should be assured by the action of this house that the fair is to be held in the city of Chicago, without further delay, as the business arrangements connected with the provisions of this act can be better adjusted when they are assured of the action of congress.

No Risk to the Government.

The committee claim that the government of the United States does not assume any risk, but is asked to enact such legislation as to demonstrate that it is in sympathy with and desires to encourage the patriotic efforts of the citizens of Chicago in this great National and international exposition that will mark this important epoch in the history of the world and commemorate the life and services of Christopher Columbus in a manner worthy the continent which he discovered.

Section 6 does not appear in the bill previously reported. It defines the duties of the commission, and gives them the necessary power to allot space for the exhibitors, classify exhibits, determine the plan and scope of the exposition, appoint judges and examiners, award premiums, and to have general charge of all intercourse with the exhibitors and representatives of foreign nations.

A New Name.

Section 8 provides for the dedication of the buildings of the World's Columbian exposition on the 30th day of April, 1892. Upon the question of time for holding the exposition there was a difference of opinion among the members of the committee, and each member reserved the right to vote for such time for opening and closing the exposition as might be deemed best after further discussion.

Section 9 provides that in addition to the approval of the commission, the president of the United States shall receive satisfactory evidence that $10,000,000 have been raised or provided for to successfully carry on this fair before proclamation is made and invitations extended to foreign nations.

Section 11 appropriates $20,000 to be expended during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1891, in the place of $100,000, which was named in the original bill, as it is estimated that that amount is all that will be required during that period for the expense of admission of foreign goods for exhibition.

Section 16 limits the cost of the government buildings to the sum of $400,000, and appropriates $100,000 of that amount for the remainder of this fiscal year and for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1891.

Only $1,500,000 From Uncle Sam.

Section 17 appropriates $200,000 for the purpose of paying the expenses of the government exhibit, maintenance of its buildings and for the expenses of the commission and other contingent expenses, all subject to the approval of the secretary of the treasury of the United States for the remainder of this fiscal year, and for the expenditure of the government hereinafter, for all purposes connected with the exposition, to the sum of $1,500,000.

Section 18 provides for the payment of the actual expenses of the commissioners while necessarily absent from their homes on the business of the commission, and for the compensation of the officers of the commission, subject to the approval of the secretary of the treasury.

Investigations in Paris.

In submitting the letter of Lyman J. Gage, chairman of the finance committee of Chicago, which will be published in the appendix to this report, this committee would call attention to the fact that the city of Chicago and the state of Illinois have, for an extended period, indicated their desire that there should be a world's fair held in the United States to commemorate the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus, and that the city of Chicago should be selected as the site. In September, 1889, they organized a committee and selected a number of experienced gentlemen, together with an engineer, to visit Paris for the purpose of studying the plans and operations of the Paris universal exposition of that year, in order to be thoroughly prepared to inaugurate without delay a National exposition by availing themselves of the experience of those connected with that of Paris. The investigations there made enable the city of Chicago to more intelligently comprehend the magnitude of the undertaking, and to estimate the cost, the scope and the requirements for the successful conduct of it, and to commence their active preparations for the site and the buildings more promptly than could have been possible excepting for their enterprise and foresight.

The committee would call attention to the fact that the citizens of Chicago offer a larger and more generous contribution to this nation for the inauguration of a National and international exposition than was ever proffered by private citizens before, and larger than any ever offered by any foreign government or city in the great international expositions previously held. In the financial plan of the great Paris exposition, which is now claimed to have been the most successful in the world, an agreement was made between the French minister of commerce, the prefect of the Seine, and the governor general of the credit foncier, in behalf of the Guarantee association, stipulating that the contributions should aggregate $2,000,000. The city of Chicago guarantees to satisfy the commission that it will provide, without the aid of the National government, the sum of $10,000,000. The committee would also call attention to the fact that the estimated cost, for all purposes, for the Paris exposition was $8,000,000, with a reserve fund of $500,000 to provide for contingencies and for possible modifications in the original plans, and it believes that the $10,000,000 with the site, to be provided by the city of Chicago, is ample for all purposes for a fair in this country.

The Minority Report.

The minority report, signed by Messrs. Belden of New York, Hatch of Missouri, and Flower of New York, is as follows: "The undersigned, members of the world's fair select committee, respectfully dissent from the foregoing report and its conclusions. We believe that the following resolution, which we voted in favor of in committee, should have been adopted:

RESOLVED, That when a guarantee fund of $10,000,000 shall be secured by the citizens of Chicago, the sufficiency and legality of which shall be satisfactory to this committee, we report the pending bill with such amendments as the committee may agree upon.

Chicago Preparing to Elect the Directors
CHICAGO, March 21.—The executive committee of citizens in charge of the Chicago world's fair movement issued a call on the 28,000 stockholders Wednesday to meet at Battery D armory, April 4, for the election of directors. To facilitate the transaction of business, a proxy blank was mailed with each copy of the call, together with a list of twenty well known business men and nine representatives of organized labor who have consented to act as holders of proxies. The directors to be elected by the meeting are the persons to whom it is proposed to intrust the responsibilities of conducting the exposition.

MR. CLEVELAND AS A LOVER.

Said to Have Proposed Five Times to Miss Tolson Before She Accepted.

NEW YORK, March 21.—A lady who has recently returned from a wedding trip to Europe, relates a conversation she held with Mrs. Grover Cleveland about how she came to marry the ex-president. In reply to the question, "How long were you engaged to the president before you were married?" Mrs. Cleveland laughed and blushed and said: "Oh, there are the most ridiculous stories told about us, but honestly they are hardly as funny as it really was. Uncle Grover proposed to me five times before I accepted him. First, when I was 14, and I just laughed at the idea, for he seemed so much older. Then again, two years later, when I went to college; and the third time when he was elected governor of New York. I was by no means ready to marry anyone, and he let things go for a year, or until he was nominated for the presidency. Then he asked me again, and again I refused. At last he was elected and I promised to marry him in a year. Of course I always liked him better than anyone else, and I always meant to marry him some day, but I'll own the White House had something to do with hurrying it up."

THE NEW KENTUCKY OIL FIELD.

Wells Not 200 Feet Deep and Yield 350 Barrels Per Day.

PITTSBURG, March 21.—Isaac Richey, representing Pittsburghers, who have leased 5,000 acres in the new Kentucky oil field, has returned with several samples of the oil, which are pronounced to be of excellent quality. There is great excitement in Barren county over the discovery. Regular gushers are struck every day, some yielding from 250 to 350 barrels a day.

A big one on Winlock farm is reported to be doing 1,000 barrels a day, and the oil was found nearer the surface than in any other field in America. Oil was reached in some wells at a depth of 180 feet, but generally wells are from 1,000 to 2,000 feet deep in Pennsylvania. Pittsburg is supplying the greater part of the tubing and other supplies.

GREATLY EXAGGERATED.

No Lives Lost by the Falling Walls at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 21.—Wednesday about 1 o'clock the ragged upper floors and a section of the wall at the ruins of the Bowen-Merrill fire fell. At first it was reported that several people had been killed and injured, but an investigation showed that none were killed and only three or four workmen injured. To avoid further danger the authorities ordered the iron front of the building pulled down.

By the collapsing of the dividing wall fire was communicated with the stock of notions in the Becker building next door, and the contents damaged to the extent of several thousand dollars.

A HILL UNDERMINED.

Three Acres Fall Into the Mississippi River—Four Boats Wrecked.

CAIRO, March 21.—Water undermined a hill at Columbus, Ky., on the Mississippi, south of here, Wednesday morning, and an area of three acres was carried into the river. A wave twenty feet high wrecked four small boats and the large Iron Mountain transfer steamer, Julius Morgan. She was lifted by the waves and came down on the piling, which started holes in the bottom of the boat, the piles going above the engine room.

FIRE AT LAVILLA, FLA.

Two Blocks of Buildings and a Hotel Burned—Loss, $125,000.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 21.—Two blocks of buildings and the Elgin house, in Lavilla, a suburb of this city, were destroyed by fire early Wednesday morning. Loss $125,000. Many of the tenants escaped in their night clothes. No lives were lost.

The burned buildings include Lillenthal's immense store and warehouse, J. E. T. Bowden's Turkish bath establishment and eight cottages beside the hotel.

DESTITUTE MINERS.

Provisions and Supplies Being Distributed at Wilkesbarre.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 21.—The work of distributing provisions and supplies among the destitute miners was actively commenced here Wednesday. The distributing force of the benevolent society were kept hard at work all day, and the store room was crowded with applicants for aid, chiefly women, who told sad stories of want.

The Mississippi Flood.

NEW ORLEANS, March 21.—A dispatch from Greenville, Miss., Thursday evening said: The water from the Offutt break is now within four miles of this town, and a small embankment is being thrown up to keep it out, though no danger is apprehended. The river has fallen here five inches since the Luna, Ark., break. No effort is being made to close that crevasse, and it is growing wider.

Would Kill the Sugar Industry.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.—When asked the effect of the proposed reduction in the duty on sugar on the beet sugar industry of California, John D. Spreckels replied: "It will kill it. If the proposed bill passes we shall not put up machinery for a second refinery, but will send it back to Germany."

BISHOP LYMAN

Gives His Opinion In Reference to the Negro Question.

He Says the South Must Settle the Trouble,

And Declares the Recent Exodus of the Thousands of Colored Laborers from the Carolinas to Have Been the Result of a Railroad Money-Making Scheme. If Left Alone the South Will Provide for and Take Care of Them.

NEW YORK, March 21.—"The southern people know how to handle the negroes; they know just what they want and need, and if we are left alone we will provide for and take care of them to their satisfaction and our credit."

These were the words of a short, robust, healthy looking gentleman of about 60, with white hair and beard and a face expressive of intellectuality and energy. It was Bishop Lyman, of North Carolina, a gentleman well known throughout the country, of vast influence in his own state and an authority on many of the southern issues of the day, but particularly conversant with the race question.

"We are glad to continue to feel that our affairs attract the attention of the north, and we believe that in our struggles upward we have their sympathy, even as we have received their assistance in regaining our commercial prestige. But there is one question that I do not think they fully understand, that is the race question. I will not touch the whole broad question, which is a vast thing, but dwell for a moment on the late negro exodus from my own state, on what I know to be the prime factor in that movement.

"It is not the hostility of the southerners that has driven the negro away; it is not that all crops have been lost for the past three years; not political disfranchisement, incompatibility, fear or any of the other ridiculous causes attributed by the northern press. But it is the action of the railroads and their satellites, or scaplers. This traffic would be small to a large northern railroad, but that it has been profitable to the lines of North Carolina and more especially to the agents, let me cite as an instance only one case and I could give you many.

"One railroad agent has sent 30,000 negroes out of the state, and his commission was $1 a head, a total of $30,000, and a very handsome fortune, I think. In the city of Raleigh and the town of Rocky Point the people rose up in righteous anger and drove these immigration agents out of the state. And I believe they were justified in doing so, for it was a mere matter of traffic with those people and resulted in cruel hardship to the poor negroes.

"The glowing promises of equality and profitable employment in Kansas and other states held out to them by these wretches would, of course, never be realized, and the penniless negro had not the means to return to the country which had at least given him shelter and subsistence. And I am sorry to say that in too many instances the exodus has been assisted by the statements made in northern papers which have been not one whit less highly colored than the agents' arguments.

"I had in my own family an intelligent colored boy to whom I paid $12 a month. The second year I paid him $14. He received a letter from an acquaintance in the north stating that he could earn $25 a month as a waiter. I did not press him to remain, believing that he would return to me in a very short time, and he went to New York, forthwith. In three months my servant returned, ragged, attenuated and heavy at heart.

"And when I consented to receive him again there was not a happier boy in the south. He had actually walked all the way from Washington. He informed me that while his wages in New York had been liberal, his expenses had kept pace with them and that what with a swallow-tail coat, other appropriate clothing and the high life of Thompson street, he was soon in great distress."

THE CRUISER NEWARK

Launched at the Cramps Ship Yard in a Snow Storm.

PHILADELPHIA, March 21.—The Newark, the last of the three steel cruisers built for the government by Cramp & Sons, of this city, was successfully launched, Wednesday afternoon, in a blinding snow storm. The vessel was christened by Miss Grace H. Boutelle, daughter of Congressman Boutelle.

The Newark is an unarmored steel cruiser of 4,083 tons displacement, and will run in the first class along with the Philadelphia, Baltimore and other recently built cruisers. She is 310 feet long, 49 1/2 feet in extreme beam, with a maximum draught of 20 1/2 feet and a mean draught of 18 3/4 feet, securing for her an intended displacement of 4,083 tons. She will be fitted with twin screws and triple expansion engines, which are expected to furnish 6,000-horse power natural draught, thus enabling her to attain a speed of eighteen knots per hour.

NEBRASKA CYCLONE.

Doniphan Struck—Wires Down—No Particulars.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., March 21.—A very destructive cyclone struck the town of Doniphan, Neb., early Wednesday night. All trains are from six to eight hours late. Wires are down, and no particulars can be learned as yet.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., March 21.—Thomas Vandever's saw-mill at Brookfield, ten miles west of here, was blown up by dynamite and completely wrecked Tuesday night. The loss is several thousand dollars. The identity of the perpetrator is unknown.

The last term of the Bath Circuit Court left a deficit of about $500 in the jury fund of that county. What's the matter with Bath?

The Wallace law seems to be growing very popular in this State. It's an excellent law, and practically puts an end to bribery and corruption at the polls. Let us have it or something like it in Maysville.

The Cincinnati Enquirer thinks all the National election bills introduced in Congress by Republicans are simply schemes to prevent the Democrats from carrying the next House. And the Enquirer is about right on this point.

That lively and interesting contemporary the Louisville Times, is moved to remark, "It's a poor town that cannot get $100,000 to build a house not worth half that amount when completed." Maysville ought to hurry up before Congress votes away all the cash.

The Republicans have succeeded in almost entirely wiping out that big surplus with "private bills." At the present rate they will have to go to increasing the taxes before Harrison's term expires. Their course in Congress can hardly prove a source of much comfort for the Western farmers.

A NEGRO who was kicked off a railroad train down in Louisiana has been awarded $7,500 damages by a Democratic jury. There are some of the Ingalls-Chandler crowd up North just mean enough to say that the Democratic jury would not have given the fellow anything had it not been proved that the kicking was done by a Republican Conductor.

The Republicans of Lawrence County held a convention a few days ago, and nominated a county ticket but failed to say a word of endorsement of Harrison and Czar Reed. The Catlettsburg Democrat says: "We understand the feeling against the present administration among Lawrence County Republicans is so universal that its few supporters did not dare ask for an indorsement."

An Eastern exchange says that when Congressman McCreary stated before the River and Harbor Commission that the coal area of Kentucky exceeded that of Pennsylvania, and was twice that of England, the fact caused astonishment. In a few years a statement of that kind will not cause astonishment at Washington City or anywhere else. Kentucky's immense mineral wealth is fast being made known to the world.

SENATOR HOAR, hailing from the old Bay State, seems very anxious to put a stop to gerrymandering throughout the land. He ought to exert himself a little to equalize things in his own State first. It now requires 75,000 votes to elect a Democrat to Congress in Massachusetts, and only 18,000 to elect a Republican. If you want to see a gerrymander as is a gerrymander, gaze on the Republican State of Massachusetts.

"It never rains, but it pours." The remarkable gains made by the Democrats at the recent municipal election in New York and Iowa have been followed by a like result in Minnesota. The St. Paul Globe remarks that the results in that State "indicate the tide of popular sentiment to be clearly in the direction of Democratic principles." Iowa got one foot over in the Democratic camp last fall, and Minnesota is coming right after her. And there are others out that way to follow.

THE Clay City, Beattyville, Barboursville, Pineville, Middlesborough, Harrison and Big Stone Gap "booms" seem to have have dropped entirely out of sight. Winchester is on the top wave now, and Ashland is about ready to do all the others up brown. Perhaps it will come Dover's turn next and then Maysville's. But the "soap bubble" variety is not wanted here. What is desired is the all-wool-and-a-yard-wide sort—a "boom" that is accompanied by a healthy and steady growth in all branches of business.

The indications are strong that Lieutenant Governor Bryan will be called up higher in the next gubernatorial contest. The Frankfort Argus says all eyes are now turned to him as the man for the position of Governor. He is undoubtedly very popular with the voters of the State. The Argus adds: "He belongs to this generation of Democrats. He is not a fossilized Democrat that has been sleeping for twenty years and now awakens to seek an office. He is a Democrat of today, without a blot upon his political escutcheon to explain or defend. Always ready to defend his party and aid it to success, he is the man to lead the party in 1891." There is no doubt that the party will have an able leader if he should be selected as the standard bearer.

Don't Delay.
Don't wait to be solicited to join the Commercial Club, but go at once to some member of the Board and have him present your name for election at the meeting to-night. Everybody who has any interest in the welfare of the city should join at once. Give your name this afternoon to either W. Larue Thomas, J. J. Wood, W. H. Cox, J. C. Adamson, R. A. Cochran, Jr., or any member of the Board of Directors and it will be acted on at the meeting of the board to-night. The Club is now an assured success, and no citizen should fail to give it his influence and presence.

THE brick business houses being torn down by Messrs. Taylor and Robinson, were erected in 1815. The workmen yesterday found some old pen-knives and copper cents in the walls.

OUR NEIGHBORS.
WASHINGTON.
A very backward season.
No gardens plowed yet, and before this last season they were all about made.
Miss B. Curtis has gone to visit her aunt, the venerable Mrs. Cleon Owens, near Germantown.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Wood, having sold her property here, will go to Missouri with her son, Charles.
"Uncle" Isham Anderson, a worthy old colored man formerly belonging in the Lee family, died this week.

There is quite a lull in the tobacco sales in this vicinity. Buyers will find a good many fine crops yet untaken.

Misses Mary and Tillie Chambers have been in Paris visiting their brother, Mayor W. P. Chambers, and other relatives.

Mr. George R. Humphreys has returned from his visit to Bourbon County and reports Mrs. LaRue somewhat improved.

Mrs. Ann Henry has moved to the place she lately bought of Mrs. W. O. and will make considerable improvements there.

Mr. Jacob Downing, who was postmaster here many years since and who is upwards of ninety years old, lives with his brother, Thos. Downing, near here, and is still hale and hearty.

Pres. Walton, whom we had occasion to speak of before, was quite a character. When he moved from here he was settling his bills by giving his note, and going into a store called for paper and signing his name told the proprietor to fill it out to suit himself as he was in a hurry, and when some one else rather objected to that mode of settlement and asked him if his note would be good, Pres. made the rejoinder that "they ought to be good, as everybody had 'em."

TOLLESBORO.
Plenty of rain and mud.
James Means was in Maysville this week.

Mrs. Rice has moved to her property on Main street.

Mrs. Row Jordan is in from Indiana, visiting friends and relatives in this community.

George R. Boyd is home from the Paris Commercial College, a graduate. George is a fine fellow, and we wish him much success.

The Farmers' Alliance is flourishing, having received twenty-two members at the last meeting. They now have a membership of about seventy-five. Fine thing, that.

ABERDEEN CHAT.
Alf Perry has about recovered from the grip. Law will & Gray, tobacco merchants, are on the break this week.

Mrs. Nannie Brown is the guest of her father and family, Captain J. J. Power.

Walter (Dock) Sibbald, of the firm of Sibbald Bros., was in Cincinnati this week.

Samuel Scott died a few days ago at his residence in this township. He was nearly eighty years of age.

And don't you forget dot attorney Jesse Ellis is a candidate for Mayor, and would make an official to be proud of.

Ed. Scott, an old-time Aberdeen boy, but now a professional tooth-joker of the far West, is in town, the guest of Jos. Cheesman and family.

"Papa," said the little one, "Do they have newspapers in heaven?" "Perhaps," answered the father, "but they will have different editors and reporters."

Captain George Burkley has lost his job. He was employed as jurymen for about six weeks, but court being over he was gently dismissed with well wishes and $2 a day.

The graduating class of '90 will have their exercises at the Baptist Church April 1st. Music by Hauck's Band. A royal feast, intellectually and materially, is in store for all who attend.

L. D. Poor, candidate for Marshal, had an accession to his family last week in the shape of a bouncing baby boy. If coming events cast their shadows before, he is now shaped up for a deputy.

Charles Rains, of Flemingsburg, formerly of this place, who died on the 16th, brought the remains here for burial the next day. Charley and his estimable wife have the sympathy of their many friends in their sad bereavement.

WHEN any girl the evening day
Tee-hee! at ev'rything you say,
And seems to have no gravity,
It should at once be understood
Her teeth are very white and good,
Or else her head's a cavity.

John B. Allison to H. B. Cra-craft, a house and lot on Shannon Creek; consideration, $400.

COLONEL A. W. HAMILTON, of Mt. Sterling, is reported to have sold a tract of Breathitt County land for $100,000. The Colonel is not one of the fellows who stuck his cash in the Western "booms" a year or so ago. But he did put some of it in the mountain land of Southeastern Kentucky and he is reaping a rich profit. We know of some people who would have been better off financially to-day if they had done as Colonel Hamilton did.

MR. P. B. WINN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Winn, has been appointed cadet from this Congressional district to the Naval Academy at Annapolis. Mr. W. P. Campbell who was appointed a year or so ago concluded not to make a second attempt to pass the examination.

THE C. and O. has two work trains, employing two hundred hands, located at the gravel-pit near Dover. They use a steam shovel that loads one hundred and twenty-five cars a day. It will take the company about three months to place the river division in thorough repair.

WINCHESTER's limits have been extended so as to take in an area of 1,131 acres. The area formerly was only 640 acres. Paris, Mt. Sterling and Lexington had better keep a sharp watch on Tom Stuart or he will presently be trying to make them suburbs of the enterprising county seat of Clark County.

For the Farmer.

Pete Perraut, who lives on the old Ben Kirk farm, near Minerva, sold $1,048 worth of pears from his orchard last year. —Dover News.

And the Owingsville Outlook adds: "But few tobacco beds have been sown in Bath County up to this time, and there is much complaint amongst farmers on this score. They say that tobacco raised from plants, the seed for which are not yet in the ground, will be in great danger from frost."

Mr. W. H. Yancey, of this city, has purchased a herd of fine Holstein cattle, consisting of the bull, Overlay Chief, 5094, the cow Glennie, 3561, and two heifers by her, one three-year-old and the other a yearling. They are all finely bred and registered. The cow Glennie was imported in 1835 by the French Bros., of Cincinnati. This breed of cows are great milkers, some of them having a record of 90 pounds of milk a day. In fact they have no equals in this respect. They also have the largest official butter tests. They mature early and take on flesh readily. They are large, smooth and handsome and are quiet, kind and gentle. Oakley Chief is by International Prince, a famous prize-winner.

There will not be much tobacco raised in Mason County this year if the rain doesn't let up pretty soon. The plant-beds are usually sown the last of February and the first of March, but the continued wet weather the past month or so has prevented the farmers from attending to this important business. In fact, the condition of the ground has made it almost impossible to burn any beds. The outlook at present is certainly very discouraging. Unless the beds are sown by April 1, there will not be much of a crop. This state of affairs is not confined to Mason County. The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat says: "The tobacco-bed question is becoming a serious one with those who contemplate setting out a crop of the Kentucky staple. Owing to the continued wet weather there has been no opportunity to sow, and the season is getting late. Perhaps the wise hand of Providence means to curtail the crop this year."

The Horse that Beat a Steamboat.

A party of gentlemen from Washington started to take a trip to Cincinnati in years gone by. They embarked on the steamer Dan'l Boone at Maysville. Mr. H., one of the company, made a bet that he could beat the Boone to the city, by land, on horseback. The bet was taken and he mounted "Jerry," a grey gelding by Hambletonian, and started from Washington by the "ridge road" at seven o'clock a. m., moving him in a running walk and single-foot rack. He arrived in front of the Broadway Hotel, Cincinnati, at 12 o'clock.

Mr. H., after having dined and had his horse fed, started on his return. Coming down the grade at foot of Broadway street he noticed the Boone in sight and waited until she landed to greet his friends and give the Captain a chance to see the horse that had beaten his steamboat. The wager, a basket of champagne, was promptly paid.

Mr. H. ferried his horse across the river, mounted him again, left Newport at 3 p. m. and arrived at Washington at 8 o'clock, making the round trip, the distance of 104 miles, in ten hours' time.

The above was handed the BULLETIN by a prominent citizen of the Washington neighborhood.

The Russian Government Not Favorably Impressed

With the Numerous Indignation Meetings,

Especially those in the United States and Great Britain, Held to Denounce the Siberian Atrocities—A Siberian Correspondent's Story of the Irkutsk Slaughter—Why Caprivi Was Appointed Foreign.

LONDON, March 21.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of The Daily News says the Russian government has been disagreeably impressed by the meetings which have been held in England and America to denounce the outrages committed upon exiles in Siberia.

A Correspondent's Story.

A correspondent in Siberia sends the details of the Irkutsk affair. He says that the prisoners involved in the affair were exiles who were suspected of having been concerned in the explosion at Zurich last March. They were allowed to live without restraint in Irkutsk, and easily found employment among sympathizers who are opposed to Russian system of exiling political prisoners to Siberia. All went well until the police discovered that the exiles were printing proclamations and sending them to Moscow.

As soon as the authorities learned what was going on, the leaders among the exiles were sent to labor in the mines and others were told to prepare themselves for a journey into the interior. The unfortunate prisoners appealed in vain, and at last resolved to seek their lives dearly. Barricading themselves in a house they awaited an attack. They had been well provided with arms and ammunition by friendly Siberians, and they received the troops who were sent to capture them with a heavy fire. Several soldiers were killed by the first volley. A fierce fight ensued, the besieged exiles holding out until a majority of their number were killed or wounded. After it was all over the ring-leader, who had survived the battle, was hanged.

VON CAPRIVI.

William Thinks a General Best Fitted for Conducting a Foreign Policy.

LONDON, March 21.—The Times' Berlin correspondent says: The emperor had a chance to study Gen. Von Caprivi's character during the maneuvers last autumn, and decided to follow the idea of Frederick the Great, that a general is the best conductor of a foreign policy, because he best knows how far he can go with the army behind him. Although a soldier of the first order Caprivi, in the opinion of all his intimates, is very much more; and, if personal appearance counts for anything, he is a man of great force of character and will, combining in a high degree suavity in mode with fortiter in re, blending sagacity with patience, resolution with good humor, and German thoroughness with southern fire. He looks the typical lion of the hugest and most impressive type. He bears a remarkable likeness to Bismarck, and might easily pass for his brother. The difference in character is discernible in their gait, that of Bismarck being sharp and heavy, while that of Caprivi is deliberate, expressive of leisurely elegance. The new chancellor is a brief but capable speaker. Count Herbert is unpopular in the diplomatic world, and it is not likely that he will be appointed as an ambassador.

The Standard's Berlin correspondent says: "Caprivi is opposed to increasing the navy, which the emperor favors. The emperor likes him personally, but he is intractable by nature, and is not likely to be chancellor long."

The North German Gazette gives prominence to a report that Gen. Von Caprivi not only succeeds to the chancellorship but to the presidency of the ministry.

Russia Not Able to Cope With China. ST. PETERSBURG, March 21.—At a military conference here, Gen. Underberger, governor of the province of Amoor, advocated a policy of moderation toward China on the ground that, in case of war, Russia could only send twenty battalions against 80,000 Manchurian soldiers. He urged the speedy construction of the Siberian railway as the best counteraction to the massing of Chinese troops on the Siberian boundary, with the object of seizing Russian ports on the North Pacific coast.

War Precluded.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 21.—The Novist, commenting on the resignation of Prince Bismarck, says: "The solitary support of the edifice of European peace has crumbled."

Foreign Notes.

The Prince and Princess of Wales have started for Berlin.

A dispatch from Mozambique says that Mr. Johnson, the British consul, has started for Zanzibar.

Prince Bismarck's written resignation covered twenty pages, giving the reasons for his withdrawal.

It is stated that Gen. Lord Wolseley will be appointed commander-in-chief of the forces in Ireland.

Thomas Hope, of New York, has bequeathed $80,000 to found a hospital at Langholm, Scotland, where he was born.

The pope received a second autograph letter from Emperor William, asking his moral co-operation in the labor conference.

The committee of the Berlin labor conference, presided over by Jules Simon, has agreed to the exclusion of children under 12 from factories.

It is reported that Ishak Khan, with a large force provided with repeating rifles and artillery, is at Bokhara, preparing to invade Afghanistan.

The Jews of Saxony are seeking to obtain the removal of the restrictions placed upon the race in the matter of serving as judges in the courts of that kingdom.

There is a generally anxious feeling in Paris. A rumor prevails that the German ambassador will resign. The rumor has a depressing effect on the bourse.

Mr. Gladstone writes: "My reason for not visiting Ireland is that my going there may tend to exasperate our opponents in Ulster, whose severance on the Irish question from most of their fellow-countrymen, as well as from their own ancestors, is, perhaps the greatest Irish misfortune of the present day."

It is officially stated that a telegram has been received from the Congo country stating that a French post, consisting of ten natives, under a European agent, has been massacred at Upungu. The abduction of the wife of a native chief by a European is stated to have been the cause of the massacre.

President Carnot, of France, has abandoned the idea of visiting Algeria. He will make a tour of the Mediterranean in April, stopping at Corsica for a short visit.

A Milanese named Fossati is exhibiting a simplified Edison phonograph, costing 100 francs. The instrument reproduces the human voice and music in a marvelous manner.

A dispatch to Paris Le Temps, from Kotonou, says: "A number of European prisoners were seen en route to Abomey on Feb. 26. They were in chains and were being cruelly treated by the escort. The French consular agent, owing to his sufferings and despairing of assistance, attempted to commit suicide."

The advance by the striking British coal miners has been conceded by fully half of the Yorkshire mine-owners. Scotch miners to the number of 30,000 are only working four days a week in the hope that they will secure an advance in wages. It is estimated that 280,000 miners are out of employment, an equal number of workers in other trades are consequently idle.
